Traineeship in International Logistics

Are you ready to dive into the exciting world of freight forwarding?

This is your chance to start your career and work with experienced professionals from around the globe, making a real impact in international trade.
As a Freight Forwarding Trainee at Blue Water Shipping, you'll gain valuable hands-on experience in several aspects of the industry. Whether you're coordinating shipments, managing logistics operations, or developing new business opportunities, you'll be at the forefront of this dynamic and constantly evolving field.

Two years of rapid career progression

Our trainee program is tailored to kick-start your career and future opportunities for a rewarding international career in freight forwarding and useful skills valued in many different functions in logistics, transport and supply chain industry.
During the two-year program there will be seven weeks of schooling, which will be a combination of physical classroom training in Denmark at the Blue Water Academy and online training from home. The program will give you the opportunity to connect solid practical experience in the office with theoretical knowledge. All teaching will be in English.

A unique career in an international setting

We are looking for motivated and curious young professionals ready to embark on an exciting learning experience. You don’t need any experience from the industry, as you will learn everything required for the job.

But we require that you:
•Completed secondary school or equivalent
•Have a genuine interest in logistics, freight, or supply chain
•Strong communication and problem-solving skills
•Have a strong team-oriented attitude and eagerness to learn
•Basic computer skills (Outlook, Microsoft suite, etc)
•Must be able to gain and maintain a Criminal History clearance
•Must have the right to live and work in Australia
Make sure you have prepared your CV and a motivational letter telling us why you are applying for the trainee position at Blue Water Shipping.
